

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

Based on the findings and discussion of the research supported by the data analysis that has been carried out, it can be concluded that the translation of traditional songs for teaching English can be achieved by implementing teaching procedures to ensure students can complete the English learning process. This study also uses worksheets to assist students in completing various exercises with the aim that students can quickly learn English. Furthermore, using translated traditional songs is essential in building a classroom atmosphere and can help students learn vocabulary. In contrast, singing can help students' interest in learning English so that students are very enthusiastic about learning. This can be seen from every meeting; students are very excited to learn English. Therefore, it can be concluded that using translated traditional songs in teaching students to speak English is an excellent idea and helps students to enrich their vocabulary and practice pronunciation when singing.

B. Suggestions

Based on the research results and conclusions, there are several suggestions as follows:

1. The village head must continue to provide full support for educational programs in the village environment in order to advance the intellectual abilities of the village community through education.
2. Students are advised to use translated traditional songs as learning resources.
3. The results of this study are expected to be a reference for further research in the same field.
