

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusion

In this part, the researcher discussed the conclusion of result quantitative data and qualitative data. The main purpose of this research is to clarify how Extensive Reading can improve students' reading comprehension on narrative text at tenth grade students of Pondok Pesantren Darul Faizin Pontianak. Based on the result of research findings, when the researcher was teaching reading comprehension especially narrative text by using extensive reading, the students was enthusiast, and felt enjoyed during teaching and learning process in the class. Using this technique made students more comfortable and focused on the text they read.

Meanwhile, from the result of students' reading test, the researcher found that the significant result of each cycle where mean score in first cycle is 50.41 and the mean score in second cycle is 78.33. It had been proved by the test that had been done by students and show improvement from each cycle. It has already shown use extensive reading could improve students' reading comprehension at tenth grade students of Pondok Pesantren Darul Faizin Pontianak in academic year of 2021/2022.

B. Suggestions

Based on the result in this study and discussion in previous chapter, there are several suggestions that the researcher would like to present.

1. To the Teacher

In teaching and learning English, the teacher can use extensive reading as an alternative technique in English lesson. Teacher should make more relaxed atmosphere in the class to make students interested in studying reading comprehension. Then, the teacher need to explain about the kind of text teacher want to studying and explain simple and clearly about extensive reading. Lastly, the teacher should have much more and variation of the text, so students can enjoy with their English text and develop their material readings.

2. To the Students

The students are suggested to read more and intensively for English materials, not only about school material but students can read short stories, newspaper, song lyrics, English book and etc. This is help students to motivate their reading interest.

3. For the other Researchers

To other researcher want to conduct similar study should consider all things who related to this research. The other researchers need to find the weakness and the strength of this research so they can develop and conduct the better research